

Our Role

---

Our role is to conduct and communicate non-clinical scientific research that

- advances the understanding of the toxicology of cigarette smoke,
- provides scientific guidance for product design and development,
- contributes to the evaluation of potential reduced exposure products
- contributes to the acceptability testing on cigarette ingredients and design modifications